

Transition & Independent Living Specialist

The Transition & Independent Living Specialist (TILS) will spend part of their time assisting seniors & people with disabilities who have Medicaid to transition out of nursing homes. The remaining part of their time will be assisting individuals already in the community with core Independent Living services including information and referral, benefits advisement, advocacy, and independent living skills training.

Transition Services: Part of the time will be dedicated to the 'Open Doors' Project and serving individuals living in nursing homes who have Medicaid. Through 'Open Doors,' the ILTS will help link the participant to services in the community including meals on wheels, housing applications, homecare agencies, and other programs and services that may help the participant to transfer back into the community. The staff member will also help the participant search for housing and complete applications for services including housing subsidies and transition funds from the NYS Association of Independent Living. The staff member will also work with the participant's family and social workers to help with a discharge plan.

More detailed information about the NYAIL Open Doors and Olmstead Housing Subsidy programs can be found at <https://ilny.us>

On average, the amount of individuals served with Transition services is 5 people per month.

Responsibilities of the Open Doors Project:

- Travel throughout Jefferson and St. Lawrence Counties to provide face-to-face visits with consumers who want to leave the nursing home. Face to face meetings will depend on the preference of the Nursing home. Much of the follow up with the participant is via phone or ZOOM.
- Distribute outreach materials about transition and MILC services. This can be done at health fairs, community events, or posted at various locations.
- Present on the transition and MILC services during meetings with other agencies.
- Work in collaboration with the lead coordinator of the project, NYAIL, long term care facilities, individuals, and family members to ensure the transition process is coordinated for each participant.
- Provide unbiased information, linkages, referrals, and advocacy on behalf of the participant
- Assist the participant to develop a person-centered transition plan with their social workers.
- Help with discharge planning.
- Assist the participant to apply for various programs including lifeline, SNAP, housing subsidies, low-income/senior housing, homecare programs, and more.
- Assist the participant to obtain household goods and supplies to assist with a successful transition, if applicable.
- Follow up routinely with the participant after discharge.

Independent Living Services: The remaining time will be spent assisting individuals of all ages and disabilities who are already living independently with various core services. Clients served by IL Services will be located primarily in St. Lawrence County but could be provided to residents in Franklin as needed. MILC has multiple Independent Living Specialists on staff so cross-county services are sometimes provided to help with coverage. Core independent living services include:

- Information and referral about other agencies and services
- Advocacy
- Benefits Advisement - such as assistance to apply for benefits like Temporary Assistance, HUD, HEAP, SSI/Disability, and Veterans benefits, among others
- Independent Living Skills training - assisting participants to plan and develop their life skills in areas of communication, their home, transportation, and more.
